To: Our Clients and Friends

As many of you know, as of September 1, 2016, our founder, mentor, partner, and friend, Peter C. Bogle, retired from the practice of law. Peter is a tireless advocate, learned counsel, committed citizen, and a fast friend. He is the embodiment of living an intentional life and strives daily to “do all that you can, with all that you have, in the time that you have, in the place where you are.” His influence will be felt long after his retirement. We wish him continued contentment and long, uninterrupted hours to devote to his yoga and meditation practice.

Also as of September 1, we are fortunate to have Kerry T. Ryan become of counsel to the firm. Kerry has over 25 years of experience in handling complex business litigation and litigation involving real estate and municipalities. Named a Massachusetts Super Lawyer for several years, Kerry is a frequent lecturer and has written numerous articles regarding business and litigation law. He currently serves as Vice Chair of the Public Law Section of the Massachusetts Bar Association.

A Midwesterner by birth, Kerry took a temporary detour to Los Angeles in his early years of practice before realizing that the greater Boston area was a far superior location, and is now a dedicated New Englander. Kerry will work primarily out of our new Quincy office at 25 Foster Street.

We look forward to our continued relationships with our friends and clients, and we welcome new clients who share our goals of zealous and strategic advocacy and respectful counseling through uncompromised dedication.

Sincerely,
Arthur M. DeAscentis
John J. Coughlin
